

BIBLE AND THEOLOGY

The Bible and Theology program prepares students in areas of biblical knowledge, theological understanding, and ministry application.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

1. display an advanced knowledge in the study, interpretation, and application of the Word of God.
2. use skills relating to the various administrative and leadership processes in their chosen vocation.
3. employ analytical thinking.
4. utilize basic disciplines and methodologies so that independent study of Scripture may be continued throughout their ministry.

Prerequisites

1. All students must have THE 2233 Pentecostal Doctrine and History or its equivalent at an undergraduate level.
2. Those students who have not taken THE 2113 Introduction to Theology and Apologetics or its equivalent at an undergraduate level must take THE 5413 Systematic Theology I as part of their graduate program.
3. Those who have not taken REL 1153 New Testament Literature and REL 1163 Old Testament Literature or their equivalent at an undergraduate level must take BIB 5133 Biblical Backgrounds as a part of their graduate program.
4. Those who have not taken BIB 3483 Hermeneutics or its equivalent at the undergraduate level must take BIB 5123 Biblical Hermeneutics as part of their graduate program.
5. Those who have not taken CMN 3353 Church Administrative Leadership or its equivalent must take PTH 5213 Church Administration as part of their graduate program.

Thesis Option

Thesis option is especially designed for and usually limited to students who plan to continue their graduate work in a Ph.D. doctoral program after completing their MA. In this option, the student takes two 3-hour courses of Thesis in the Elective Component of the degree plan. These two courses must be taken in two consecutive regular semesters (Fall-Spring or Spring-Fall, not available in Summer). This option must be approved by the Department of Bible and Theology during the semester prior to the student's first semester of thesis.
