Music
WHAT CAN I DO WITH THIS DEGREE?
The application of your degree is often broader than many realize. While some of the following vocations require additional training beyond your bachelor’s degree, they are examples where a Music degree can be applied.

EDUCATION
Elementary
Middle
Pre-school
Private Lessons
Secondary

PERFORMANCE
Arranging Composing Conducting
Instrumental Performance
Vocal Performance

RECORDING INDUSTRY
Administration
Engineering
Manufacturing
Marketing & Sales
Producing
Product Management
Promotion/Media Relations
Publishing & Editing

OTHER
Music Lawyer
Music Journalist
Music Therapist
Worship Leader

Publicity
Recording
Talent Acquisition

COMMUNICATIONS
Copyright/Clearance Administration
Music & Program Direction
Music Editing, Production, & Composing
Music License Administration
On Air Performance
Post Production
Promotion
Research
Sound Mixing
Voice Overs

PERSPECTIVES
“Combining real-world opportunities with leadership and faculty who aren’t afraid to push you, it is prime training ground for anyone who endeavors to make an impact in music ministry.”
DeWayne Adcock, Songwriter/Composer/Ministry Consultant

“When I came to Southwestern, I was terrified of the Music Education program because I was afraid I did not have what it takes to be a music teacher...I’ve learned so much in the past three years about music theory, education, directing, and myself, and I cannot wait to step into a music program.”
Alison Afshari, Sr., Music Education

“I had never studied voice with such depth before. I developed an intense love for the study of voice and music. My teachers brought things out of me that I never realized I had.”
Emily Santos-Silva, Vocal Performance

KEY NOTES ABOUT OUR PROGRAM
• SAGU is becoming an All-Steinway School, which will elevate SAGU to one of only 3 in Texas and only 113 worldwide. SAGU would be the first A/G school to become All-Steinway.
• Hands-on ministry and performance opportunities are built into each program to provide practical experience and develop your skills.
• Students may participate in departmental ensembles including band, jazz band, choir, chorale, and piano ensemble.
• Students may participate in ministry teams including Ransomed, The Call, Harvesters, and Chapel Worship.
• Music internships will sharpen your skills and interests. Music ministry majors are placed in a church under the direction of a mentor music director. Performance majors choose a Music Ministries internship in a church or a Music Pedagogy internship with a music faculty mentor. Music Education majors student teach in elementary or secondary music programs.
• You will learn from experienced and award-winning music instructors. Our music programs provide a solid foundation in performance, general musicianship, worship ministry and church music leadership.

AFTER GRADUATION
Our alumni receive employment with reputable companies and organizations. Recent graduates have begun careers in the following fields.

Public School Music Teachers
Christian School Music Teachers
University Music Faculty
Music Ministers/Worship Leaders
Recording Artists

See our list of degrees on the final card.

Learn more at www.sagu.edu/music or call 1-888-YES-SAGU.