The Master’s degrees in Biblical/Theological Studies prepare students spiritually, academically, professionally, and cross culturally in areas of biblical studies, theological understanding, and practical ministry.

Program Entrance Requirements
To be accepted into these programs, the student must have an undergraduate degree with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.50 from an accredited college or university. Any exceptions must be approved by the Dean of the Harrison Graduate School.

Thesis Option
A “Thesis Option” is provided for each of the programs in this area. This option is especially designed for and usually limited to students who plan to continue their graduate work in a Ph.D. doctoral program after completing their M.A.

In this option, the student takes two 3-hour courses of Thesis in the Elective Component of the degree plan. These two courses must be taken in two consecutive regular semesters (Fall-Spring or Spring-Fall, not available in Summer). This option must be approved by the Department Chair during the semester prior to the student’s first semester of thesis.

Graduation Requirement
Students must apply for graduation and successfully pass the Graduate Comprehensive Examinations or the Thesis Option prior to being approved for graduation from the Registrar’s Office. Application for graduation must be made by the end of late registration in the semester in which the student anticipates to graduate. In order to qualify for a specific graduation date, graduating students must have all program and course requirements completed. Contact the Graduate School Office and Registrar’s Office for more information.
The Bible and Theology program prepares students in areas of biblical knowledge, theological understanding, and ministry application.
