ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership program prepares leaders from a broad range of institutional settings to impact positively their organizations and communities while completing the mission of Harrison Graduate School to provide graduate programs which equip students to fulfill the mission of the University (i.e. to prepare students spiritually, academically, professionally, and cross-culturally so as to successfully fill evangelistic, missions and church ministry roles and to provide quality educational and professional Christian service wherever needed throughout the world) through increased professional and ministerial effectiveness and preparation for future academic training.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program the student will be able to:

1. Identify and strategize for the development of their unique personality, gifts and assets within a framework of servant leadership.
2. Demonstrate leadership knowledge, capabilities, and characteristics needed to impact positively the church or marketplace.
3. Create a dynamic plan to manage personal and professional growth.

Program Entrance Requirements

To be accepted into this program, the student must have an undergraduate degree with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.50 from an accredited college or university. Any exceptions must be approved by the Dean of the Harrison Graduate School.

Graduation Requirement

Students must apply for graduation from the Registrar’s office. Application for graduation must be made by the end of late registration in the semester in which the student anticipates to graduate. In order to qualify for a specific graduation date, graduating students must have all program and course requirements completed. Contact the Graduate School Office and Registrar’s Office for more information.
