INSTRUCTIONS: Please Read and Follow the Instructions Carefully

Federal financial aid regulations assume that the family has primary responsibility for meeting the educational costs of students. For this reason, those who are defined by the FAFSA to be dependent students are required to provide parental information and a parent’s signature in addition to their own.

Exceptions to the dependency rules are those rare instances where it can be proven that there has been a “total breakdown” in the student-parent relationship. Examples of “total breakdown” include parental abandonment, or the removal of the student from the home due to an abusive environment. If you believe that you have experienced a total break in the relationship with your parent, you must provide the following items to the Financial Aid Office.

1. Complete the “Dependency Change Request Form” which includes the student’s personal information and a detailed statement from the student explaining why they wish to have a change of dependency status.

2. A student must have already completed a FAFSA online at www.fafsa.gov.

3. Submit two references that are aware of your circumstances (Youth Minister, Pastor, High School Counselor, etc.). Please use the Reference Forms that are included in this packet.

Please note the following information regarding your request:

- Federal regulations do not allow for a change in dependency status simply because a student's parents are unwilling to provide financial information for the FAFSA or are unwilling to support a student’s educational expenses.
- Please neatly complete the entire form. Do not leave any sections blank.
- Be as detailed as possible when explaining your personal situation and why you are requesting a change of dependency status.
- Please submit any extra documentation that you have regarding your situation that you feel might be helpful in making a decision regarding your change of dependency request.
- Completing the FAFSA incorrectly can seriously delay the processing of your application.
- The Financial Aid Office will carefully consider your request and will make a decision according to the federal regulations that we are required to follow given your unique situation.
- If you have any questions, please email the Financial Aid Team at financialaid@sagu.edu or call at (972)825-4730.
- Your completed request form, two references, and supporting documentation can be turned in by:

  Mail: SAGU, Attn: Financial Aid, 1200 Sycamore St, Waxahachie, TX 75165
  Email: financialaid@sagu.edu
  Fax: (972)923-8143
  In Person: The Financial Aid Office is located in the Davis Building on the SAGU campus.
