

*Jennie Friddle
Feb. 21 1936*

Here we find Kenny and Lawrence apparently getting ready for Saturday night. Upon examining the first picture in the second row, we can't help wondering who owns this "trot-line"; won't he be surprised at his catch? Those are two corn-fed girls from Illinois at the end. Note background! Below, we observe the joys of motoring with Brother Unruh. When we first met quiet little Gladys Hoyer, we never expected to see her in such a daring role as indicated in the fourth row. The next picture may resemble fire, but it's only a hot game of "Hop, Skip, and Jump." A framed enlargement of the next view is soon to be hung in the boys' dormitory to commemorate the day on which Paul Long donned working clothes. At first sight of the last picture, one person exclaimed, "So that's why Fay Clopine has such an enormous appetite." We hate to leave you with the impression that there are such freaks at Southwestern, but "that's all there is, there ain't no more".

Keep on the Firing Line

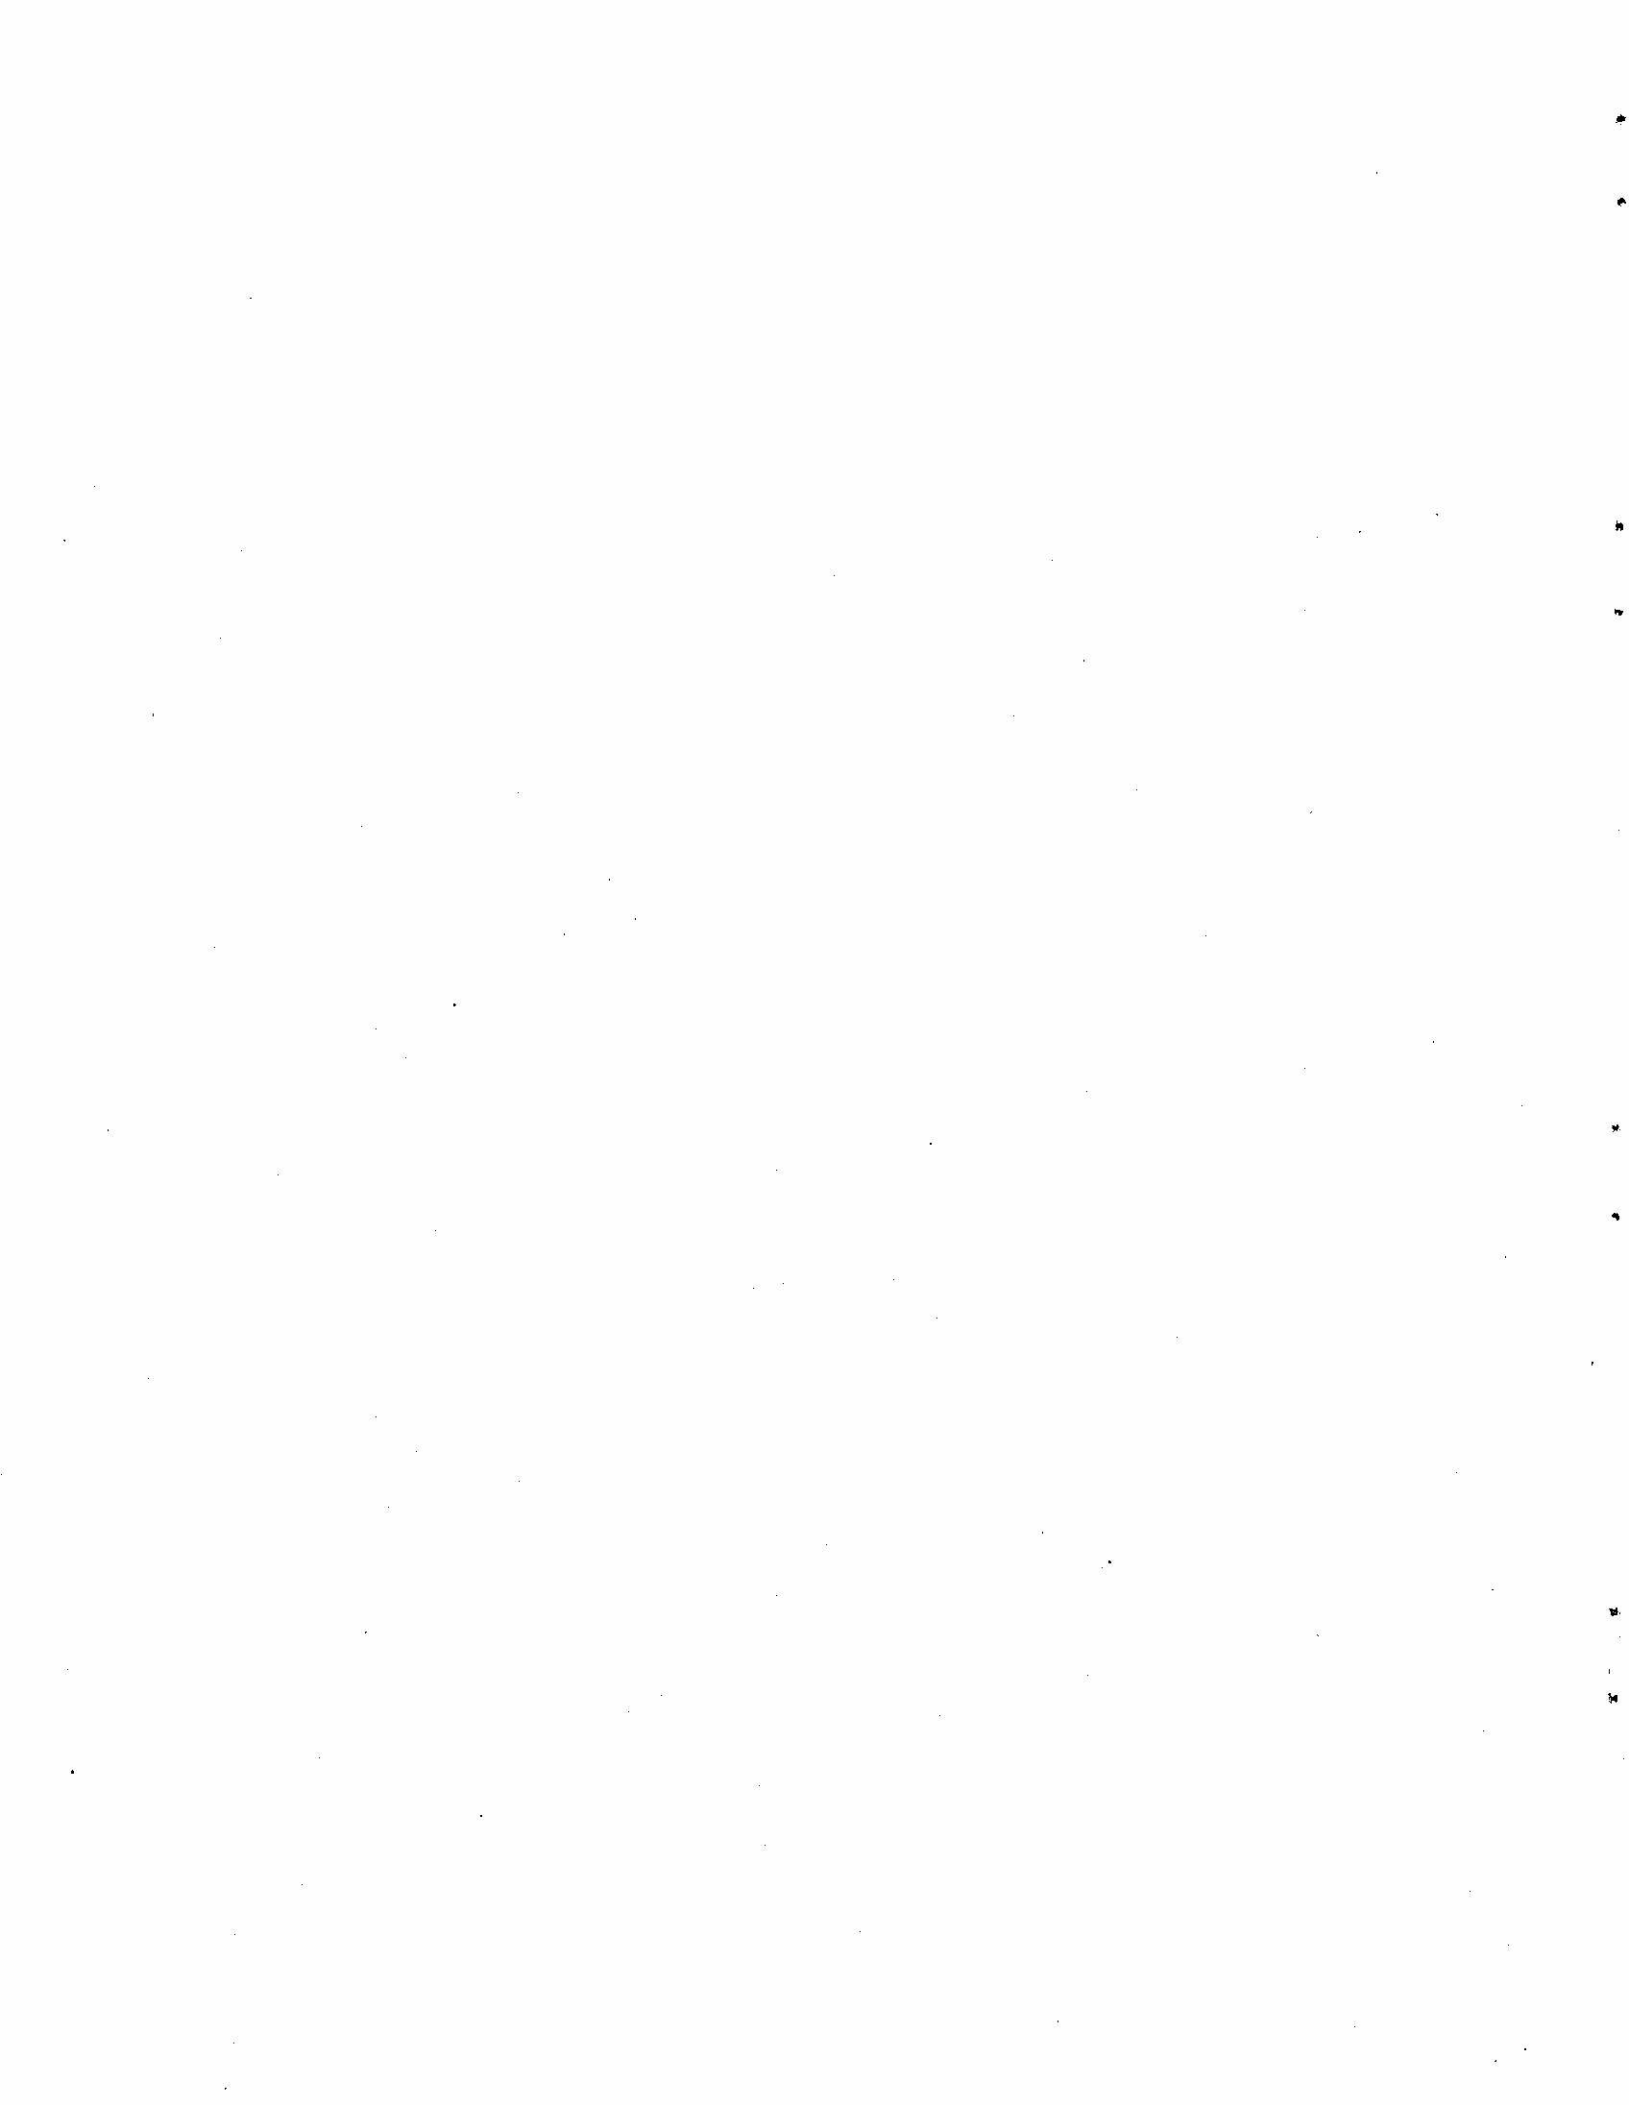

If you're in the battle for the Lord and right,
Keep on the firing line;
If you'd surely win, my brother, you must fight,
And keep in the firing line;
There are many dangers every one must face,
If you die a-fighting that is no disgrace,
With the Lord for cowards you can find no place,
So keep on the firing line.

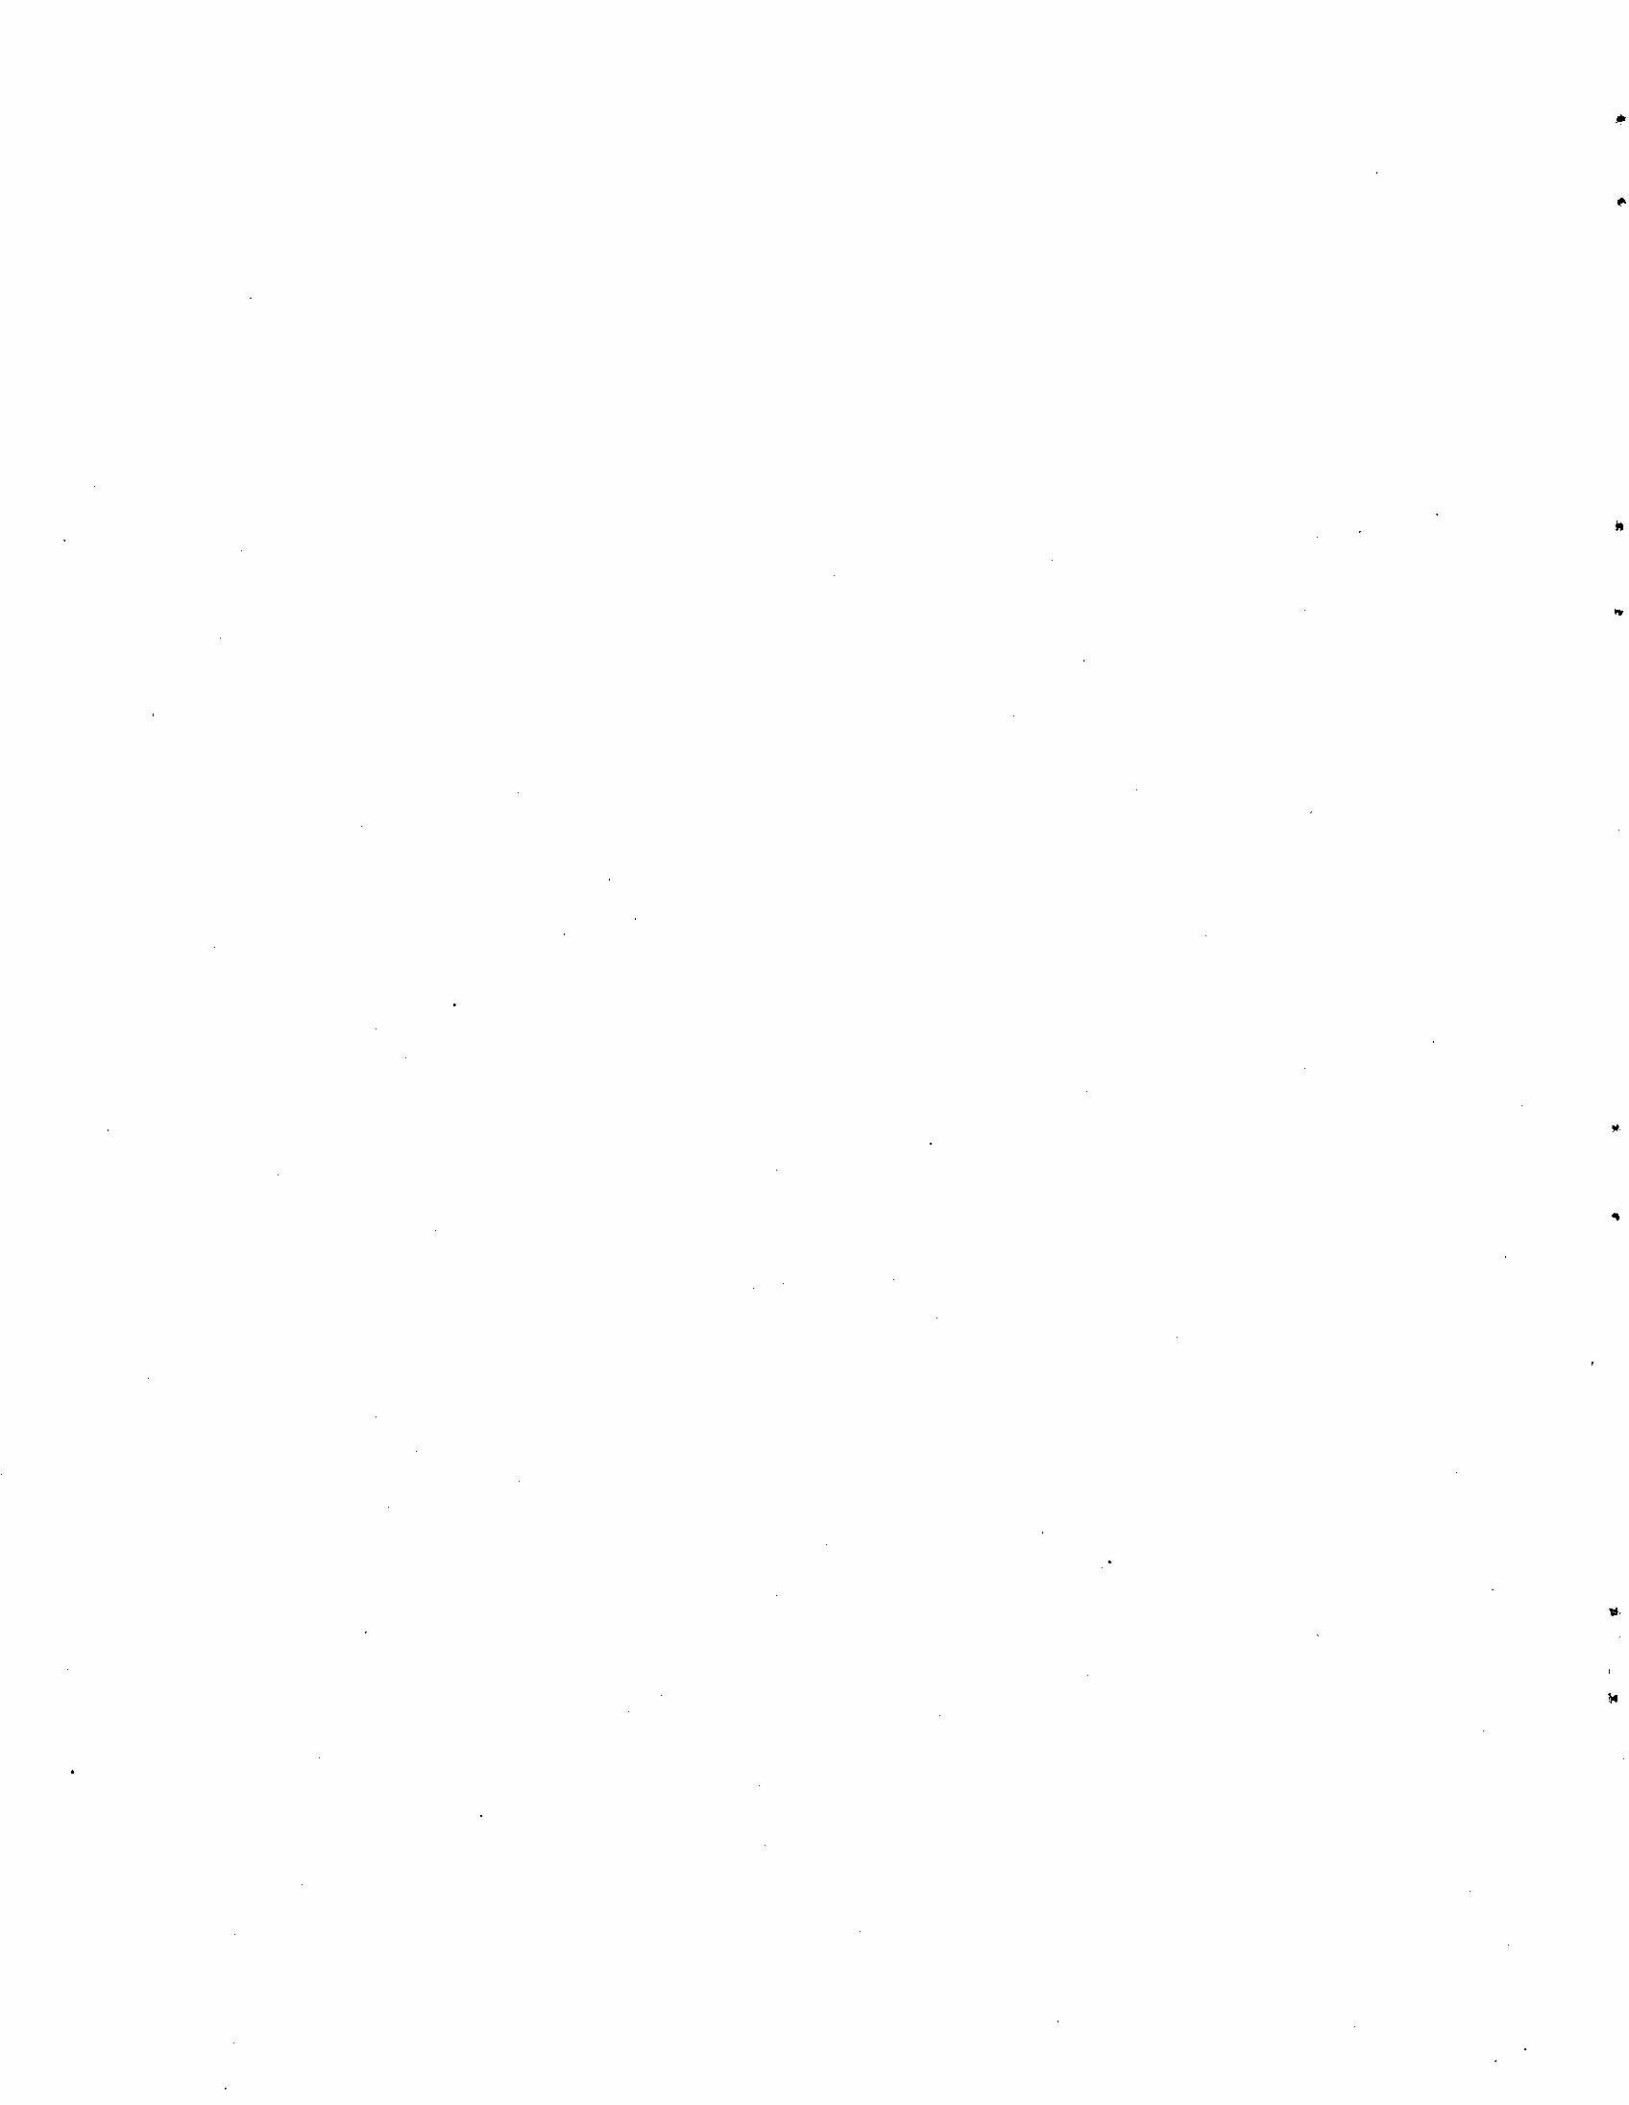

God will only use the soldiers He can trust,
And keep on the firing line;
If you'd wear a crown, then bear a cross you must,
And keep on the firing line;
Life is ours to labor for the Master here,
Help to banish evil and to spread good cheer,
So keep on the firing line.

When you get to glory, brother, you'll be glad
God had a firing line;
How you'll praise the Master for the call you had,
To get on the firing line,
When you see the precious souls you helped to win,
Leading them to Jesus from the paths of sin,
Hear the shout of welcome when we all march in
Who have served on the firing line.

FULL GOSPEL TABERNACLE TULSA, OKLA.

Some twenty years after hardy pioneers had established at the base of the Osage foothills a village called "Tulsey Town", there ventured into the western settlement an evangelist whom a few termed "queer". He pitched a canvas tent on the Hotel Tulsa site and preached a message that was new, and unheard of before. And in three weeks one hundred persons were converted to Pentecost.

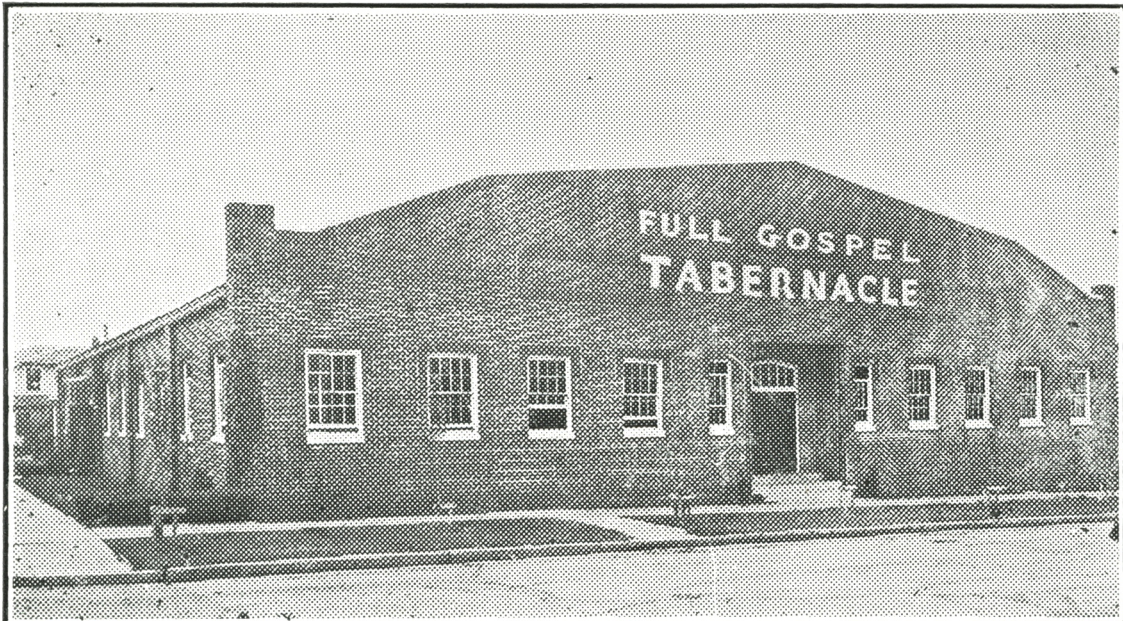

That first tent meeting, conducted by the Reverend C. F. Parham in the year 1908, on the Hotel Tulsa site, marked the inception of Pentecost in Tulsa. The evangelist moved on to other territories. His happy followers, deprived of canvas shelter, assembled themselves together in the homes of the converts to worship. A little later they accepted the offer of an old deserted church building on Second and Cincinnati and worshipped there until the structure was dismantled. The County Court House became their next meeting-place, and then they decided to lease a lot on the corner of Brady and Cincinnati. The frame church erected on this spot came to be referred to as the "most spiritual church in town".

In 1913, the wooden church was raised from its familiar location and borne to the corner of Fifth and Peoria Streets. The membership incorporated under the Assemblies of God. Some years later, the frame construction, somewhat out grown by its congregations, was taken down and a brick church seating 1,000 persons was erected in its stead.

At the present time, the Sunday School quarters, with its thirty class rooms are quite crowded. The church membership has increased from 330 to 485 during the past one and one half years' ministry under Reverend H. T. Owens.

Granada Gospel Tabernacle, Granada, Minn.

DEXTER E. COLLINS, Pastor

To the Southwestern Bible School, the Churches and all the Brethren throughout Oklahoma; Greetings:

During the last three years the Granada Gospel Tabernacle has grown from a small congregation and Sunday School to now be the largest Full Gospel Church between Minneapolis, Minnesota and Des Moines, Iowa. Our Sunday School organization is recognized to be one of the best in the country.

We have recently constructed a large church building with a full size basement which we have equipped for Sunday School and Bible school work. The building contains, altogether, 4300 square feet of floor space.

Out of the large work here and neighboring towns grew a pressing need for a Bible school which was started January, 1934.

When you come to Minnesota, come to Granada Gospel Tabernacle.

Southern Minnesota Bible College

DEXTER E. COLLINS, President.

BIBLE SCHOOL ON THE FARM.

The plan is to support the school largely from the farm as you would a large family. The students shall be given the privilege of earning board and room by working on the school's farm. There is no other school like that. Southern Minnesota is a rich prosperous farming country. It is called "The Agricultural Garden Spot of the Nation." Therefore, it affords an ideal place and opportunity for a school of this nature.

Natural Advantages

For health, Southern Minnesota cannot be beat. The wonderful fresh air from its natural lakes and fertile fields are literally laden with vigorous health and vitality.

For recreation, it is ideal, swimming, boating, fishing and beautiful lake shores to allure you from the dust, smoke and hot pavement of the city.

For further information write

Dexter E. Collins.
