eBooks

The library is expanding our eBook access! Available in the library catalog, SAGU Discovery, and in the EBSCO eBooks Database, our new eBook collection focuses on expanding your access to the most-needed books in theology/biblical studies and psychology (we're going to expand into other subject areas soon!).

Because our new eBooks are on the EBSCOhost platform, you'll have to log in with your SAGU/Blackboard credentials to view the eBook. Once logged in, you can view the eBooks in your web browser/mobile device or download the eBook for later reading. The download feature is new to the eBooks we've bought! We still have online-only eBooks available in EBSCO, but all of the ones we're now buying can be downloaded!

Book Recommendation

Sonship: A Journey into Father's Heart by James Jordan

“The prophetic revelation of Sonship is sweeping around the world today like a groundswell in the ocean, restoring the place of the Father’s love in the Christian life.” from back cover

After embracing a Christian life of works and the subsequent burnout from doing life in their own strength, James and Denise Jordan find a way to be loved by the Father that is impartible to others as substance. Operating in the Father’s love, they lead a life of resting in God and being fulfilled in loving others as “daddy” is loving them.

James also reveals the “orphan spirit” when we feel fatherless and alone. Jesus always pointed to the Father, saying what He said to say and doing what He was doing. Now we can embrace the Father and receive His love, too. We are adopted into the family of God and are orphans no more.

What does it mean to be adopted by God the Father through Jesus the Son? Find out on this journey into Father’s heart. Sonship is available for checkout in the library now. Its call number is 248.4 J82.
