School shall grant such access solely to those School Personnel and Students who have a need to use the School Portal, and shall grant Students access to the Student Portal only. School shall authenticate the identity, and, in the case of a Student, enrollment status, of each End User prior to granting School Portal access to such End User. (a) Each Party shall retain all right, title and interest in and to its intellectual property, including its Proprietary Information, systems, software, computer programs (including, but not limited to, in the case of TMS, the Student Account Center), processes, technology, services, methodologies, models, products, patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, and any other materials or rights, tangible or intangible (collectively, “Intellectual Property”). Except for the licenses granted in this Section 6, nothing shall, or shall be construed to, restrict, impair, transfer, license, convey or otherwise alter or deprive any of any of its rights or proprietary interests in its Intellectual Property, including, without limitation, any modifications, enhancements or derivative works thereof. Each Party shall use the other Party’s Intellectual Property solely in the form and manner set forth in this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of such other Party.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as granting to either Party (i) any right or license under the other Party’s present or future patent rights or copyrights, or (ii) any right or license to use, for any purpose other than those purposes expressly stated in this Agreement, the other Party’s information or any other information, materials or results received, discovered, or produced by such other Party in connection with its obligations under this Agreement.

6.2 Grant of Licenses. As of the Effective Date and thereafter during the Term, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (a) School grants to TMS a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty free, revocable license to use School’s Intellectual Property solely in connection with the Services or as necessary for TMS to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and (b) TMS grants to School a non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty free, revocable license to use TMS’s Intellectual Property solely as necessary to access or utilize the Services. Neither Party shall use, transfer, assignment, lease, or sublicense, in whole or in part, any of the other Party’s Intellectual Property without such other Party’s prior written consent, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement.

6.3 Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, as applicable, all licenses granted by any Party to another Party shall immediately terminate without notice required, and each Party shall return the other Party’s Intellectual Property and all copies or derivative works made thereof, as set forth in Section 7.4 of this Agreement. Thereafter, neither Party shall have any rights or licenses to use the other Party’s Intellectual Property or any such copies or derivative works, except as specifically agreed between the Parties in writing.

SECTION 7 CONFIDENTIALITY

7.1 Confidential Information. All information disclosed by a Party (the “Disclosing Party”) to the other Party or its Personnel (the “Receiving Party”), including without limitation all Intellectual Property, statistics, information concerning operations, sales information, and other such information as may be supplied by the Disclosing Party or its affiliates which is not generally ascertainable from public or published information (collectively, “Proprietary Information”), and all nonpublic personal information, as such term is defined in the Privacy Requirements, any part of any Education Record, End User Data, or any personally identifiable information or records in any form (oral, written, graphic, electronic, machine-readable or otherwise) of any individual who has submitted such information to the Disclosing Party or the Disclosing Party’s affiliates, including without limitation, the individual’s name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, payment or transactional account history, account balance, or the fact that the individual has a relationship with the Disclosing Party (collectively, “Consumer Information”), shall be presumed to be proprietary and confidential unless specifically identified in writing by the Disclosing Party. Together, the Consumer Information and the Proprietary Information shall be called the “Confidential Information.” For the sake of clarity, the Confidential Information of a Party shall include information provided to such Party by any third party or a Party’s Personnel to the extent such Party is obligated to hold such information in confidence.

7.2 Exceptions. “Confidential Information” shall not include any information that: (1) was already known to the Receiving Party prior to disclosure by the Disclosing Party without breach of any legal or contractual obligations of the Receiving Party, (2) is or becomes a matter of public knowledge through no breach of this Agreement or other wrongful act of the Receiving Party, (3) has been received by the Receiving Party from a third party and without breach of any obligation of confidentiality of such third party to the owner of the Confidential Information, (4) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to any of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information, which the Receiving Party can demonstrate by contemporaneous records, (5) has been approved for release, or (6) in the case of Consumer Information, was received by the Receiving Party by a third party outside the scope of, and unrelated to, this Agreement. Nothing in this Section 7 shall be construed to prohibit disclosure of any information, including, without limitation, Confidential Information, to a governmental authority authorized to receive such Confidential Information, regulatory agencies, rating agencies, attorneys, accountants, servicers, Vendors, to the extent permitted under this Agreement, and/or consultants of a Party, and/or the employees and agents of any of the foregoing, who have a duty or other binding obligation to respect the confidentiality thereof.

7.3 Ownership and Restrictions on Use. The Receiving Party acknowledges and agrees that, except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Disclosing Party, and the disclosure of such information to Receiving Party does not confer upon it any license, interest, or right of any kind in or to the Confidential Information. At all times and notwithstanding any expiration or termination of this Agreement, the Receiving Party agrees that it shall:

(a) Hold in strict confidence and not disclose to any third party the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, except as approved in writing by the Disclosing Party or as necessary to carry out its obligations under this Agreement;

(b) Only permit access to the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to those of the Receiving Party’s Personnel and other third parties who have a need to see it and/or use it, to the extent the applicable party is made aware of the confidentiality obligations covered in this Agreement;

(c) Be responsible to the Disclosing Party for any of its Personnel’s or other third party’s use and disclosure of the Confidential Information provided to its Personnel or such third party by the Receiving Party;

(d) Only use Confidential Information that it receives to carry out the purposes of this Agreement and for no other purpose whatsoever, except with the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party;

(e) Use at least substantially the same degree of care it would use to protect its own Confidential Information of like importance, but in no event less than a commercially reasonable degree of care, including, without limitation, maintaining information security standards for such Confidential Information as are commercially reasonable and customary for the type of information. Specifically, with regard to Consumer Information, TMS shall comply with the information security standards specific to such Consumer Information set forth in this Agreement.

(f) With regard to TMS, except with the prior written consent of School, not perform Services or access School’s Confidential Information, nor shall it permit any of its Personnel to perform Services or access School’s Confidential Information from a location outside of the United States of America;

(g) Keep all physical documents and any other material containing or incorporating any of the Confidential Information at the usual places of business of the Receiving Party, and all electronic data where such data is typically warehoused; and

(h) Make copies of the Confidential Information only to the extent required for the purposes of this Agreement.

7.4 Return of Information. Upon the earlier of the written request of the Disclosing Party or when no longer needed by the Receiving Party for fulfillment of its obligations under this Agreement, and to the extent permitted by Requirements of Law, the Receiving Party shall either: (1) promptly return to the Disclosing Party all documents and other tangible (including, without limitation, electronic) materials containing the Confidential Information disclosed by the Disclosing Party, and all copies thereof in its possession or control, or (2) erase or destroy all such materials. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiving Party shall be permitted to retain a copy of Confidential Information disclosed by the Disclosing Party for audit and/or compliance and evidentiary purposes or to the extent necessary to comply with any law or regulation or the Receiving Party's document retention policies, provided that the Confidential Information is kept confidential in accordance with this Agreement. The Receiving Party shall not be required to return, destroy or delete Confidential Information disclosed by the Disclosing Party which has been backed up pursuant to the Receiving Party's electronic data retention policies and which incorporates Confidential Information disclosed by the Disclosing Party, provided that such Confidential Information is kept confidential in accordance with this Agreement. Notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement, as applicable, or the destruction of Confidential Information pursuant to this Section 7.4, the Receiving Party shall continue to be bound by its obligations of confidentiality.

7.5 Applicable Law. Each of the Disclosing Party and Receiving Party shall comply with (a) Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 U.S.C. § 6801 et seq.; (b) federal regulations implementing such act and codified at 12 C.F.R. Parts 40, 216, 332, and 573; (c) Interagency Guidelines Establishing Standards For Safeguarding Customer Information and codified at 12 C.F.R. Parts 30, 208, 211, 225, 263, 308, 364, 568, and 570; (d) FERPA, (e) the HEA, and (f) other applicable Requirements of Law (the "Privacy Requirements") relating to the privacy and security of Consumer Information when disclosing, accessing, using, reusing, and/or transmitting any Consumer Information and at all relevant times. The Receiving Party shall not use or transmit any Consumer Data beyond the purpose for which it received the data pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 8 CONSENT BY SCHOOL

8.1 Consent By School. School grants TMS permission to (a) name School as an existing client in any TMS marketing materials or press release during the Term, and (b) provide School with information regarding new TMS products or services and/or enhancements to its existing products and services. These communications may be sent via email, web links, direct mail or other forms of communication.

SECTION 9 INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Mutual General Indemnity. Subject to the limitations in Sections 9.2 of this Agreement and the conditions set forth in Section 9.3 of this Agreement, each Indemnifying Party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the applicable Indemnified Parties harmless from and against any and all claims (including, without limitation, any and all third party claims against such Indemnified Party and damages resulting therefrom), judgments, liabilities, fines, penalties, losses, claims, actions, demands, lawsuits, costs, and expenses including, without limitation, reasonable and documented attorneys' fees (collectively, "Losses"), incurred by such Indemnified Parties that arise out of or relate to the Indemnifying Party's obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that except in the case of an Indemnifying Party's gross negligence, willful misconduct, or fraud, no Indemnified Party shall be entitled to indemnification under this Section 9 to the extent that such breach or failure occurred as a result of or in connection with the gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud of an Indemnified Party, any failure of any representation or warranty made by an Indemnified Party in or pursuant to this Agreement to be true and correct, the non-fulfillment or non-performance of any covenant, obligation, or other agreement of an Indemnified Party contained in this Agreement, or the failure by an Indemnified Party to comply with Requirements of Law in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, and without in any way limiting the foregoing, an Indemnifying Party shall reimburse each Indemnified Party for all costs incurred by them resulting from third party investigation of the acts and practices of the Indemnifying Party, its subsidiaries, and/or Affiliates, including, without limitation, expenses related to compliance with any third party subpoena or with any other discovery proceeding.

9.2 Limitations of Indemnity.

(a) No Indirect Losses. Except in the case of an Indemnifying Party's gross negligence, willful misconduct, or fraud, in no event shall an Indemnifying Party be liable under this Agreement for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or exemplary or punitive damages (or any comparable category or form of such damages, howsoever characterized in any jurisdiction), regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise, and even if foreseeable or if the Indemnified Party has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

(b) Limitation on Direct Losses. EXCEPT FOR LOSSES ARISING OUT OF TMS'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, OR FRAUD, TMS'S TOTAL LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF A SERVICE, SHALL BE LIMITED TO PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES CAUSED BY TMS'S NEGLIGENCE IN AN AMOUNT NOT TO EXCEED GREATER OF (i) US $500,000, OR (ii) THE PRICE PAID BY SCHOOL TO TMS UNDER SECTION 3 OF THIS AGREEMENT (FEES) IN THE TWELVE (12) MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING SUCH CLAIM.

(c) Statute of Limitations. The rights and obligations of the Parties under this Section 9 shall survive for eighteen (18) months following expiration or termination of this Agreement.

9.3 Indemnity Procedures. When seeking indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Party will promptly notify the Indemnifying Party in writing of any claims or Losses subject to indemnity. Any delay in notice to the Indemnifying Party will relieve the Indemnifying Party of its defense and indemnity obligations only to the extent of any prejudice of the defense of the Losses. Within fifteen (15) days following receipt of written notice from an Indemnified Party, but no later than ten (10) days before the date on which any response to a complaint or summons is due, the Indemnifying Party will notify the Indemnified Party in writing (a) acknowledging its indemnification obligation and assuming control of the defense and settlement of the claims or Losses (a "Notice of Election") or (b) of its good faith dispute of liability, which such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Section 10 of this Agreement. If the Indemnifying Party delivers a Notice of Election, the Indemnifying Party will have the sole right to conduct the defense of any claims or Losses and all negotiations for compromise or settlement, except that: (i) the Indemnifying Party will not enter into any compromise or settlement that will have the effect of constituting an admission of liability by the Indemnified Party, or creating any liability or obligation (whether legal or equitable) on the Indemnified Party's part, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party, (ii) no compromise or settlement is authorized unless the Indemnified Party is completely released of liability under the compromise or settlement, and (iii) the Indemnified Party will be entitled to obtain counsel at its own expense and assist in the handling of any claim. Any counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party to defend the Indemnified Party will be subject to the reasonable approval of the Indemnified Party. If the Indemnifying Party, after receiving notice of any Losses, fails to deliver a Notice of Election within the timeframe set forth herein or otherwise fails to acknowledge its obligation of indemnification, the Indemnified Party may (without further notice to the Indemnifying Party) retain counsel and undertake the defense, compromise or settlement of the Losses. The Indemnifying Party will promptly reimburse the Indemnified Party for all costs and expenses incurred in defending against the Losses, including the payment of any final, non-appealable judgment or award or the costs of compromise or settlement of the Losses.

9.4 Exclusive Remedies. EXCEPT IN CONNECTION WITH (1) THE OTHER PARTY'S FRAUD, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OR GROSS NEGLIGENCE, (2) THE OTHER PARTY'S BREACH OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTION 6 (INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY) OR SECTION 7 (CONFIDENTIALITY) OF THIS AGREEMENT, (3) A PARTY'S EXERCISE OF EQUITABLE REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO IT, OR (4) AS OTHERWISE SET FORTH IN SECTION 3.3 (EARLY TERMINATION FEES) OF THIS AGREEMENT, IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED THAT THE INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS OF A PARTY SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION 10 CONSTITUTE THE SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES OF A PARTY AGAINST THE OTHER PARTY IN RESPECT OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF.

SECTION 10 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

10.1 In the event of any dispute arising in connection with the interpretation of this Agreement, the performance of either Party under this Agreement, or otherwise relating to this Agreement, the Parties shall engage in good faith discussions to resolve such dispute for ten (10) Business Days from the first date on which a Party notified the other Party in writing of such dispute. If such dispute is not resolved within ten (10) Business Days, the Parties shall resolve the dispute by litigation in an appropriate court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 11 TERM AND TERMINATION

11.1 Term. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue through the earlier of January 31, 2022 (the "Initial Term"), unless earlier terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Section 11. Thereafter, subject to this Section 11, this Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year periods (each, a "Renewal Term") unless terminated by any Party by written notice of non-renewal to the other Party given to the non-terminating Party at least ninety (90) days prior to the end of the Initial Term or then current Renewal Term, as applicable. School acknowledges and agrees that TMS may adjust the fees charged for a Service during a Renewal Term prior to the start of such Renewal Term; provided, however, that TMS shall provide School with any such changes at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the start of such Renewal Term.

11.2 Termination.

(a) Notification. Termination under Section 11.2(b) of this Agreement shall be effective immediately, subject to any applicable cure period set forth in this Agreement, by delivery of a written notice of termination to the affected Party.

(b) Termination for Cause. From and after the Effective Date:

(i) Breach. Either Party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other Party if the non-terminating Party fails to perform any of its obligations hereunder in any material respect, or shall breach any of its representations, warranties, or covenants in this Agreement in any material respect, and such failure or breach continues unremedied after the expiration of sixty (60) calendar days following written notice to the non-terminating Party specifying the nature of such failure or breach and stating the intention of the terminating Party to terminate this Agreement absent a cure of such failure or breach in all material respects within such sixty (60) calendar day period; provided, however, that a Party may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 11.2(b)(i) to the extent that it is in breach in any material respect of any of its representations, warranties, or covenants, and/or is failing to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect at the time of such written notice of termination or during any subsequent cure period.

(ii) Requirements of Law. Either Party may terminate a Service immediately upon written notice to the other Party if, in the reasonable determination of its legal counsel, TMS is unable to further provide such Service or a feature of such Service due to a Requirement(s) of Law, as set forth in Section 4.1 of this Agreement, or if any governmental authority with authority over the terminating Party prohibits the terminating Party from performing any of its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect.

(iii) Force Majeure. If a Party is prevented from performing, or its performance of its obligations under this Agreement is rendered impracticable (such Party, the “Non-Performing Party”), for a period of at least five (5) Business Days during any two (2) week period as a result of delays or failures due to any cause beyond its control, howsoever arising, and not due to its own act or negligence and that cannot be overcome by the exercise of due diligence (each such cause, a “Force Majeure Event”), then the Non-Performing Party shall provide written notice to the other Parties of such Force Majeure Event and inability to perform (the “Force Majeure Event Notice”). Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other Party following the delivery of the Force Majeure Event Notice; provided, however, that if the Non-Performing Party regains its ability to perform hereunder within five (5) calendar days after the Force Majeure Event Notice was provided to the other Parties and the Non-Performing Party provides written notice of its ability to perform hereunder to the other Parties (the “Force Majeure Event Cure Notice”), then the terminating Party must deliver written notice of termination to the other Parties no later than thirty (30) calendar days after delivery of the Force Majeure Event Cure Notice.

11.3 Effect of Expiration or Termination. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and except as required by Requirements of Law, immediately upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, as applicable, (a) except for any amount subject to a good faith payment dispute as documented in writing by a Party to the other Party, each Party shall pay any amounts that it owes the other Party which are then due and outstanding under this Agreement, including, without limitation, any Early Termination Fees owed by School to TMS, (b) all rights and licenses granted hereunder, and all obligations and covenants imposed hereunder, shall immediately cease, and (c) each Party shall cease using all Confidential Information, Marks and/or any other proprietary materials of the other Party then under its possession or control, (including, without limitation, all applicable features of or related to Services), and shall comply with the provisions of Section 7.4 of this Agreement. Neither expiration nor termination of this Agreement or a Service shall (i) discharge any payment obligations accrued as of the effective date of such expiration or termination, as applicable, even if such obligations are payable after the termination date, or (ii) entitle School to a refund of any amounts previously paid to TMS.

11.4 Transition Period. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, beginning on the Business Day immediately following expiration or termination of this Agreement and ending on the earlier of (A) ninety (90) days following expiration or termination of this Agreement, or (B) the date on which all Credit Balances have been successfully delivered to the applicable Student and all checks delivered under the Check Method have been cashed (the “Transition Period”), TMS shall (I) perform the Services set forth in Section 2.5 of this Agreement related to the delivery of Credit Balances for Students who, as of the date of expiration or termination of this Agreement, as applicable, have selected a Delivery Method from the Student Portal, (II) provide School continued access to the School Portal and those Students who have already selected a Delivery Method from the Student Portal, access thereto, and (III) assist School with processing new Credit Balance deliveries for Students who did not successfully receive Credit Balances previously delivered under this Agreement, and/or who need such Credit Balances delivered via a different Delivery Method. TMS shall continue to invoice School, and School shall continue to pay TMS, in accordance with Section 3 of this Agreement, for Services performed during the Transition Period. Except for any amount subject to a good faith payment dispute as documented in writing by a Party to the other Party, each Party shall pay any amounts that it owes the other Party within thirty (30) days following the expiration of the Transition Period. Upon the conclusion of the Transition Period, TMS shall cease providing Services set forth in this Section 11.4, and each Party shall return or destroy the other Party’s Confidential Information in accordance with Section 7.4 of this Agreement, except as otherwise set forth therein. Any provision of this Agreement that is necessary for either Party to perform its respective obligations under this Agreement during the Transition Period shall survive until the expiration or termination of the Termination Period, as applicable. TMS may, at its option, terminate the Transition Period prior to its expiration for any reason set forth in Section 11.2(b) of this Agreement and subject to the provisions set forth therein, as applicable.

11.5 Survival. Any and all provisions, promises, and warranties contained herein, which by their nature or effect are required or intended to be observed, kept or performed after expiration or termination of this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and remain binding upon and for the benefit of the Parties.

SECTION 12 MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Relationship of the Parties. The Parties are independent contractors and this Agreement shall not establish any relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise, or agency between the Parties. Neither Party shall have the power to bind the other or incur obligations on the other's behalf without the other's prior written consent. Neither Party shall represent itself as an agent, employee, legal representative, joint venturer, or partner of the other nor shall it assume or purport to create any obligation on behalf of the other.

12.2 Expenses. Except as is otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, each Party shall pay its own costs and expenses in connection with carrying out its responsibilities under this Agreement, including all regulatory fees, attorneys' fees, fees for information security compliance, and other expenses.

12.3 Complete Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, (a) is the complete statement of the agreement of the Parties with regard to the subject matter hereof; and (b) may be modified only by a writing signed by both parties. This Agreement shall govern the delivery and performance of the Services. Except as expressly agreed in writing by the Parties, all other terms of any negotiation, or similar document, whether prior or following the Effective Date, including but not limited to any pre-printed terms thereon and any terms that are inconsistent, add to or conflict with this Agreement and/or an Exhibit, shall be null and void and of no legal force or effect. If on the Effective Date the Parties have any other agreement in effect governing TMS's provision of Services to School, this Agreement shall supersede such agreement solely to the extent such agreement relates to the Services and the Parties' rights and obligations contained in this Agreement.

12.4 Multiple Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, including, without limitation, by facsimile and .pdf electronic transmission, each of which shall be deemed an original for all purposes and all of which shall be deemed, collectively, one agreement.

12.5 Waiver. No Party shall be deemed to have waived any of its rights, powers, or remedies under this Agreement unless such waiver is approved in writing by an authorized representative of the waiving Party. No delay or failure by either Party to exercise any right, power, or remedy hereunder shall constitute a waiver thereof by such Party, and no single or partial exercise by either Party of any right, power, or remedy shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or any exercise of any other rights, powers, or remedies.

12.6 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable requirements of law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be legally prohibited or invalid, such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

12.7 GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY CHOICE OR CONFLICT OF LAW PROVISION OR RULE THAT WOULD CAUSE THE APPLICATION OF LAWS OF ANY JURISDICTION OTHER THAN TO THOSE OF DELAWARE.

12.8 Drafting; Captions. Each Party acknowledges that its legal counsel participated in the drafting of this Agreement. The Parties hereby agree that the rule of construction that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement to favor any Party over the other. Further, the captions, headings and arrangements used in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not in any way affect, limit or amplify the terms and provisions hereof.

12.9 No Third Parties Benefitted. This Agreement is made and entered into for the protection and legal benefit of the Parties, and their permitted successors and assigns, and each and every Indemnified Party (all of which shall be entitled to enforce the indemnity contained herein), and no other person, shall be a direct or indirect legal beneficiary of, or have any direct or indirect cause of action or claim in connection with, this Agreement.

12.10 Permitted Filing. Each Party may file this Agreement (with redactions as permitted by Requirements of Law) with the appropriate state or federal regulators, including the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Department of Education, as required by such regulators.

12.11 Exclusivity. During the Term, School shall not directly or indirectly offer, promote, or endorse any financial product or service that is the same or similar to the Services without the prior written consent of TMS.
